Dear Colleagues

With A.G.M.s of Boards of Trustees approaching I am aware that many of the statutory responsibilities that Boards hold are delegated to the principal. Boards and Principals can come unstuck however if these delegations are not formalised. As a consequence of discussion with our legal advisor I have attached a template of resolutions for delegation of authority to principals. This is not intended as a template you would use in an unfettered form because different boards and principals will have differing views about the difficulty of delegation particularly in an employment context. It is a good starting point however for you and your board chair to start thinking about delegation of authority resolutions for your AGM.
